

Crystal A. Curry mediates an array of complex civil matters appealed from the various jurisdictions and administrative agencies throughout the State of Maryland. As an attorney and mediator for the Appellate Court of Maryland's Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Division, Crystal co-mediates with Senior Judge-Mediators and guides mediation participants through pre-mediation negotiations. She also prepares orders and remands to dispense pending appeals.

Before joining the ADR Division, Crystal was in private practice where she specialized in civil litigation and mediation for approximately ten years. Prior to private practice, Crystal served as a law clerk for the Navy-Marine Court of Criminal Appeals and to the Honorable Alfred Nance (Ret.), Baltimore City Circuit Court.

Crystal received her B.A. in Political Science from Spelman College and her J.D. from the University of Baltimore School of Law, where she participated in the Frederick Douglass Moot Court team and served on the Honor Board.
